

The Impact of Brexit on International Business in the UK

The Birkbeck International Business Seminar kindly supported by the Worshipful Company of World Traders

■ Venue

Lecture Theatre B01
Clare Management Centre
Birkbeck, University of London
27 Torrington Square
Bloomsbury
London WC1E 7JL

■ Date

Wednesday 28 June

■ Time

6 – 8.30pm

■ RSVP

To book your place, please register here.

■ Core Team

Dr Frederick Guy
Professor Kevin Ibeh
Dr Odile Janne
Professor Xiaming Liu
Dr Paz Estrella Tolentino

If you have any questions,
please contact:
Dr Paz Estrella Tolentino
Event Chair
Email: p.tolentino@bbk.ac.uk

We cordially invite you to the first Birkbeck International Business Seminar hosted by the International Business Group in the Department of Management, Birkbeck College. The mission of the seminar is to bring together scholars, industry, policy and third sector practitioners to share cutting-edge research and ideas on salient international business topics. This inaugural event aims to stimulate discussion on Brexit and its implications for international business opportunities in the UK.

Keynote Speakers:

Nigel Driffield, Professor and Deputy Pro Vice-Chancellor for Regional Engagement at the Warwick University Business School. A renowned expert on inward foreign investment and economic development.

Andrew Grainger, Assistant Professor of Logistics and Supply Chain Management at Nottingham University Business School. Previously held key positions at British and European trade facilitation bodies.

Patricia Jackson, Senior Adviser on financial regulation at Ernst & Young. Formerly Head of Financial Industry & Regulation Division at the Bank of England.